

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Isaiah 6:8

But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:9

Jesus said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. Luke 5:4-6

To Our Guests

Glad you're with us. Please sign the guest book by the front door and fill in a visitor's card from the pew pocket. After the service enjoy a cup of fair trade coffee with friends in the Fellowship Hall.

GATHERING OUR HEARTS

Introit

Bless the Lord my soul and bless God's holy name.
Bless the Lord my soul who leads me into life.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, whom alone we worship and serve.

Prayer for Wholeness

Holy God, we confess to you and before one another the many ways we misuse your gifts. In our desire to have more and more, we damage your good creation. In our obsession with ourselves, we ignore the suffering of those around us. We hoard the blessings you bestow on us, and cannot be a blessing to others. Free us. Restore us to life. Strengthen us in your steadfast love that we might share that love, fully and freely. Amen

Carl Jung

What is the value of a Christianity in which Jesus is worshipped as Lord, but Christian discipleship - the way of Jesus - is regarded as largely irrelevant to life in the modern world?

Even when a need exists and we are well qualified to meet it, we are not necessarily called to respond to it. . . . To be doing what is good can be the greatest obstacle to doing something even better.

NEW MEMBERS Interested in learning more about what it might mean to be a member of Shepherdstown Presbyterian Church? There will be a class forming next month for those who are curious about this. Please let Rev. Sitterley know if you are interested in being a part of this.

SUNDAY SEMINARS We will undertake an exploration of anger, using the Richard Rohr periodical Oneing, which includes a dozen essays from a wide variety of writers and perspectives. Starting February 17, with the "Introduction" and the first essay "Contemplating Anger" Fellowship Hall @ 9:45 a.m. Books are in the office: $10 each (or pay what you can.) All are welcome. Childcare provided.

HILLBILLY a documentary film. Thursday, February 21, 6 p.m., Reynolds Hall. This film depicts a more authentic Appalachia, including people of color, LGBTQIA+ persons and features Silas House, bell hooks, Affrilachian poets and more. The filmmakers will be present to answer questions after the screening. This is a joint project of SPC and Shepherd University's Appalachian Studies Program. Check out the trailer: <https://vimeo.com/268320305>. The film is free of charge, but seat reservations are required by calling 304-876-5648 or emailing jbrumage@shepherd.edu with name and number of seats desired. Reservations are recommended.

Ordinary Time

Fifth Sunday

February 10, 2019

11:00 a.m.

I believe in all that has never yet been spoken.

I want to free what waits within me so that what no one has dared to wish for may for once spring clear without my contriving.

If this is arrogant, God, forgive me,
but this is what I need to say.

May what I do flow from me like a river,
no forcing and no holding back,
the way it is with children.

Then in these swelling and ebbing currents,
these deepening tides moving out, returning,

I will sing you as no one ever has,
streaming through widening channels
into the open sea.
