Psalm 107

We give thanks to You, who are the Source of Love;
 whose Light shines forth throughout the universe!
 Come, awaken our hearts that we might do your Work;
 For, without You, we can do nothing;
 'tis your Love that loves through us.
 Gather us in from all the lands,
 from the east and the west,
 from the south and the north.
 Let all who are hungry and thirsty,
 whose souls are faint within them,
 cry out to the Most Merciful to give them succor,
 to nourish them with healing love;
 For fear cannot live where love and gentleness abide.
 Enter into the Great Silence,
 where you may hear the voice of the Beloved,
 Who satisfies the hungry soul,
 and quenches the thirsty with streams of Living Water.

SHEPHERDSTOWN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

100 W. Washington Street
 Shepherdstown, West Virginia
 Established 1743

The LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that I will be with you as I was with Moses. So now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe."

Joshua 3:7-12

As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children, urging and encouraging you and pleading that you lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into God's kingdom and glory. We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:11-13

"All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Matthew 23:11-12

O Beloved, you are merciful and kind. You are the source of love and light. Without you we are nothing. And yet we turn away from you and turn against each other. Hold us in your everlasting arms and we shall live as one.

Community means strength that joins with our strength to do work that needs to be done. Arms to hold us when we falter. A circle of healing. A circle of friends. Someplace where we can be free. Starhawk

I believe that Christ came not to dispel the darkness, but to teach us to dwell with integrity, compassion and love in the midst of ambiguity. The one who grew in the fertile darkness of Mary's womb knew that darkness is not evil of itself. Rather, it can become the tending place in which our longings for healing, justice, and peace grow and come to birth. Jan Richardson
Night Vision

Don't turn your head. Keep looking at the bandaged place. That's where the light enters you. And don't believe for a moment that you're healing yourself.

Sanctity has to do with gratitude. To be a saint is to be fueled by gratitude, nothing more and nothing less. Ronald Rolheiser
